The Prayer Point Series of Books came out of a season of consecration through fasting and prayer, which is annually observed by Prayer Academy students across the country to end the year strong. At the request of many intercessors, we were able to capture the fasting prayer points and put them in a easy format for intercessors across this nation to use during their seasons of fasting and prayer. These power packed books can be used individually, with a group, or with your church.

This prayer booklet came as an inspiration from the Holy Spirit. It was a gradual and a consistent compilation of prayer points from Bible verses which was put together daily during the author's personal Bible Studies, and which she uses to pray every midnight between the hours of 12am and 4am. She has had so many experiences, victories, revelations, and testimonies with this prayer booklet. Family started using it also, and she believes that having it as a prayer booklet will inspire to Christians who are hungry for a midnight cry. This book is a guide for midnight prayers to encourage a consistent midnight prayer life, and at the same time help raise up prayer points based on scriptural verses. It is also designed to help you set up a prayer project for 21 days with 7 prayer points for each day. And can be reusable from month to month, throughout the whole year just like the author does. And it has room for personal prayer intensions, reflection, and testimonies.

Rev. Hagin encourages Christians to examine and follow the scriptural reasons for fasting. He discuss-es the proper length for a fast, and he presents an interesting alternative to the traditional view of fasting--an alternative the Lord gave him.

"Again I say to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it will be done for them by My Father in heaven. This is the black and white version of "Praying the King's Agenda" a color version is also available at a higher rate. Praying the King's Agenda Jesus is the King of kings. He is the Lord of lords. When a king speaks, his subjects listen. When a Lord (Master) sets the agenda, that agenda is followed to a T. The great news for us as Jesus-followers is this: all Jesus reveals about himself and all he commands of us in his word is for our good. We have a kind, caring and benevolent King who wants joy, hope, rest and contentment for us both now and forever. He is not a killjoy. His yoke is easy and his burden is light. He's no slave driver or despot. His commands are not about his ego. He laid down his life for God's people, and he has a plan for our eternal happiness. He is a gracious giver of many gifts. One of these is prayer. Jesus invites us to pray often and makes magnificent promises about prayer. The question is how do we know what to pray for? How do we know when our prayers are healthy, good, Christ-honoring and not self-centered or wrongly motivated? That's why praying the agenda of Jesus Christ himself is a wise and healthy practice. Pray the King's Agenda. That same Jesus who is King of kings has communicated so much to us in his word. He's told us about himself. And he's told us what he commands. When we pray truth about our Savior and pray according to his commands, we must be on the right track. This is praying the King's agenda: Take what Jesus has revealed and pray it back to him. These 21 Days of Focused Prayer won't begin to exhaust all that the Scriptures reveal about Jesus or all that comes from him. But it's a wise start. And it sets a pattern you can continue.
