Welded sound are also known as "glued sounds." This terminology is derived from a visual teaching perspective: a welded metal object can be seen as one item, but when inspected more closely, the individual components become clear. The letters in a welded, or glued sound, operate in the same fashion.

A glued sound (which you might see your child putting a box around) is one in which the letters carry their own sounds but are difficult to separate - hence they're 'stuck together.' When students tap these words that include a glued sound, they keep either 2 or 3 fingers together and say the sound with 1 tap.
