Neanderthal-John Darnton. NEANDERTHAL. In the high altitudes of the Pamir Mountains-"the roof of the world"-a guerrilla fighter vanishes, a schoolgirl is murdered, and an eminent Harvard professor disappears. To a shadowy government agency in Maryland, these are all signs that something has gone terribly wrong. Matt Mattison and Susan Arnot, paleontologists who were once lovers and are now academic rivals, mount an expedition to the remote region.

When a paleoanthropologist mysteriously disappears in the remote upper regions of the Pamir Mountains in Tajikistan, two of his former students, once lovers and now competitors, set off in search of him. Along the way, they make an astounding discovery: a remnant band of Neanderthals, the ancient rivals to Homo sapiens, live on. The shocking find sparks a struggle that replays a conflict from thirty thousand years ago and delves into the heart of modern humanity.

The author's first novel is a rollicking adventure yarn set in the high Himalayas where a surviving race of Neanderthals has been discovered. These hominids have the uncanny facility for remote viewing making them very desirable to the secret services of both East and West.

When an editor is murdered in the newsroom of the financially troubled New York Globe, Priscilla Bollingsworth, an ambitious, young NYPD detective, teams up with rebellious reporter Jude Hurley to find a killer among a ruthless media tycoon, a bumbling publisher, resentful journalists, and others. Reprint.

A novel of the life and work of Charles Darwin chronicles his travels and scientific discoveries and the efforts of modern-day anthropologist Hugh Kellum and Darwinian scholar Beth Dulcimer to uncover the truth of his life.

A Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist traces his investigation into the life of the father who died in World War II when the author was a baby, describing the devastating impact of his loss on the family and the myths about him perpetuated by the author's mother. Reprint.

A collection of touching, humorous, and practical writings explores literature and the art of writing with contributions from Russell Banks, Saul Bellow, E. L. Doctorow, Richard Ford, Carl Hiaasen, Alice Hoffman, John Updike, and many others. Reprint. 17,500 first printing.

In the remote mountains of central Asia, an eminent Harvard archeologist discovers something extraordinary. He sends a cryptic message to two colleagues. But then, he disappears. Matt Mattison and Susan Arnot--once lovers, now academic rivals--are going where few humans have ever walked, looking for a relic band of creatures that have existed for over 40,000 years, that possess powers man can only imagine, and that are about to change the face of civilization forever.
