What do they all mean - the lascivious ape, autophagic dragons, pot-bellied heads, harp-playing asses, arse-kissing priests and somersaulting jongleurs to be found protruding from the edges of medieval buildings and in the margins of illuminated manuscripts? Michael Camille explores that riotous realm of marginal art, so often explained away as mere decoration or zany doodles, where ...

This artwork is Flaxton artist Miles Allen's entry for this year's Sculpture on the Edge exhibition, which has been attracting artists and visitors to Spicers Tamarind in Maleny for 10 years. Mr Allen, who won the competition for best sculpture in 2015, says artists play an important role in our community, even more so when we find ourselves despairing about the state of the world.
