Aakriti loves Neeraj who is smart, sensible and a passionate lover, Neeraj loves Aakriti who is simple, innocent but very naughty. They together made "A CUTE LOVE STORY" which is completed 42,926 words romantic story of MBA college students set in lucknow. Fun, romance and sensual, the book revolves around the girl Aakriti and also Neeraj who learn the ultimate meaning of honesty, passion, and devotion and changed himself to be a true lover of the girl. Aakriti who after a lot of hard work and struggle, manages to get into the MBA college finds herself to be attracted towards one of the senior who also started liking her a lot. Neeraj who himself was attracted towards Aakriti and likes her for her simplicity but remains reserved and never approached her. MBA College brought all new experiences for Aakriti, the environment in the hostel, the fun they use to have, different type of people and heavy loads of assignments, placement time, changing attitude of friends. Where on one side it all appears to be very tough to handle and life seems to be very difficult here, on the other hand life became pleasant for her after being friendly with khushi who later becomes her roommate. With time she realizes Neeraj was not serious about her, he behaves in the same way with other students and juniors and there was nothing special about her for him. She was heartbroken but she didn't said anything to him as she realized that he never made any commitment to her and wished him good luck and said bye forever. Where after that Aakriti suffered the pain and agony from being separated by her love, Neeraj realizes that Aakriti really loved him and started missing her. He realized he could not do without her and what he has lost. After the 3rd trimester break when Aakriti came back to lucknow and miss each and every moment in college when she saw him, Neeraj wasn't there for her. Khushi her roommate understands her feelings but didn't want her to live in fantasy and want her to move on. Once when she was sitting in her room someone knocked Aakriti's room and she was shocked after opening the door. Who was there at the door? Is this any how related to her dreams? Did she finally get her love? Will there be the successful ending for this cute love story? Now a little about me. I am an avid reader of romance and love writing it as well. I have taken part in many of the poem/creative writing programmes in college and got certificates also. I believe the story would definitely fascinate the youngsters and for all other readers it would bring their old memories of college life back.

"Charming. . . . A moving testament to the diversity and depths of love." —Publishers Weekly You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll be swept away—in less time than it takes to read this paragraph. Told in voices that are honest, vulnerable, tender, and wise, here are 175 true stories that are each as moving as a lyric poem and convey a universally recognized feeling, all in fewer than one hundred words. There are stories of love found and love lost, and the sometimes rarest of loves, self-love. Stories of romantic love, brotherly love, platonic love. Stories of mothers and daughters, husbands and wives, strangers who dream of what might have been. And the oldest story of all—boy meets girl—their tale ends happily ever after, even though along the way the boy became a girl.

Wealthy Lanna Davenport has the perfect life—and she hates it. When faced with the choice between the kind and caring man her mother has picked for her and the one who can help her escape the confines of her life, Lanna finds herself torn between being herself and letting everything go.

What Would You Do If a Secret Was Causing Your Family to Crumble? Is there a secret terrible enough that it should never be revealed, not even if it was tearing a family apart? For more than five decades Emma Bauer has kept one—carefully guarding it with all her strength, and for more than five decades that choice has haunted her life and also the lives of her daughters and granddaughter. Is it too late for wrongs to be righted? Does Emma even have the strength to let the healing power of truth work in her family? The story of four generations of women and the powerful effects that their choices have had on their lives is at the heart of Eve's Daughters, an epic novel from author Lynn Austin. Grand in scope but tender and personal at the same time, it will please you as a fan of contemporary or historical fiction. Exploring times from World War I to the 1980s, Eve's Daughters is an insightful look at mothers, daughters, sisters, and families that allows you to see a little bit of yourself through the characters' triumphs, struggles, and hard-tested faith. Yearning for love, dignity, and freedom, the four generations of women must come to terms with the choices they have made. Healing comes when the past is forgiven but only when they embrace God's forgiveness can they shatter the cycle that has ruled their lives over the decades. When Dimple Met Rishi meets Ugly Delicious in this funny, smart romantic comedy, in which two Vietnamese-American teens fall in love and must navigate their newfound relationship amid their families' age-old feud about their competing, neighboring restaurants. If Bao Nguyen had to describe himself, he'd say he was a rock. Steady and strong, but not particularly interesting. His grades are average, his social status unremarkable. He works at his parents' pho restaurant, and even there, he is his parents' fifth favorite employee. Not ideal. If Linh Mai had to describe herself, she'd say she was a firecracker. Stable when unlit, but full of potential for joy and fire. She loves art and dreams pursuing a career in it. The only problem? Her parents rely on her in ways they're not willing to admit, including working practically full-time at her family's pho restaurant. For years, the Mais and the Nguyens have been at odds, having owned competing, neighboring pho restaurants. Bao and Linh, who've avoided each other for most of their lives, both suspect that the feud stems from feelings much deeper than friendly competition. But then a chance encounter brings Linh and Bao in the same vicinity despite their best efforts and sparks fly, leading them both to wonder what took so long for them to connect. But then, of course, they immediately remember. Can Linh and Bao find love in the midst of feuding families and complicated histories?

"I love my life thinking that I met you once, i held your hand, you smiled at me and I too did..." Every night, he prepares himself to live another day without her. She always walks beside him with a smile on her face but unseen and unheard to others, then why does he miss her the most? What had happened some years ago which is an unspoken treasure inside him; yeah it's a childhood love story. He felt the love when he saw her for the first time, but even two years of being with her didn't let him to convert those feelings to words. Before it could happen, they were separated by another four-letter word 'hate', but this also made him understand the love. Things were not the same anymore; they were destined to fall apart but the thread connecting them never broke; might got stretched a lot, yeah they were meant to meet. Everything in our life holds its preciousness and value for a certain period of time. Once he was dying to get her back into his life, but now he doesn't, though he loves her the most. Then what does he want? What separated them? The love story which is supposed to have a happy ending years before why still needs an ending? Will it end like a typical Bollywood romantic movie? Or will have a happiest ending ever? What does he mean by 'the best ending'?
