Eyes are the windows to the soul. In photography — if you ' re photographing people, remember: eyes are the windows to the soul. If you look at the last few thousand years, most portraits of human beings focus on the eyes. Either having the eyes look straight at the viewer, or off into the distance.

A-Z of Modernist Photography | Tate
Postmodern photography is characterized by atypical compositions of subjects that are unconventional or sometimes completely absent, making sympathy with the subject difficult or impossible. Like other postmodern artists, the champions of postmodern photography contend that it is possible to ignore the “ rules ” and still create art.
